Todo sobre mí

This can be a writing activity, but I included a reading first as an example and questions to give more input with the yo forms and the tú forms.

Instructions:

1. Have kids read the description in Section A in both Spanish and English.
2. Make sure kids understand the questions in Section B. Then have them think of answers. If they need to, they can write down short answers.
3. Have kids write as much as they can about themselves in paragraph form, not just bullet points.
4. Correct what they wrote, and have kids read their descriptions to you or someone else!

TIPS:

You can use this just as a reading activity if you want and skip the writing part.

If kids are writing, this should be the very last activity since it's output. Lots of input (kids listening to and reading Spanish) needs to happen first.

If your kids aren't reading and writing yet, you can be their scribe and write what they say.

Todo sobre mí

A. Read the example below in Spanish and English:

Me encanta ir a la playa. Me encanta ir a las montañas también. Yo tomo un carro a la playa y tomo un tren a las montañas. Yo voy a la playa y las montañas con mi familia. Mi familia y yo estamos contentas cuando estamos en la playa y en las montañas.

Me encanta comer pizza. Me encanta ir a Nueva York para comer pizza. Yo tomo un avión de mi casa a Nueva York con mi amiga. Entonces¹ yo tomo un taxi del aeropuerto al restaurante con ella. Cuando mi amiga y yo estamos en el restaurante, comemos² mucha pizza.

¹Then ²we eat ³transportation

B. Think of answers to the questions below:

1. ¿Adónde te encanta ir?
2. ¿Qué transporte³ tomas a (place)?
3. ¿Con quién vas a (place)?
4. ¿Qué te encanta hacer en (place)?
5. ¿Cómo están tú y (other person) cuando están en (place)?

C. Write at least one paragraph about yourself on the lines below using the answers from section B. Make sure to use me encanta, tomo, and estamos.
