GAME

Depending on how competitive your kids are, you can either have them play against each other or just use this as a listening activity. If you use it as a listening activity, make sure each person has a game board.

Materials Needed:

- 1 game board per 2 players
- 2 different colored pens or markers (1 for each player)

How to Play:

1. Have kids sit next to their partner at a table. Make sure each partner has a different colored pen or marker and the game board is an equal distance between the partners.
2. Have kids turn the paper over so it is face down.
3. Read a statement from one of the boxes on the answer key below (in Spanish). Don't read in order - make sure to mix them up.
4. The kids then turn the paper over and need to look for the correct translation on their game board. Whoever sees it first, marks the box and earns a point.
5. Continue steps 2 - 4 until you have read all statements. Feel free to repeat the statement a few times in Spanish. It can take a few for kids to find the English translation on their gameboards.

How to Win: Whoever has the most points at the end, wins the game.

Answer Key:

Es la una y tres.	A la una y veintiocho	Son las dos y diez.	Son las tres y cuarto.
A las cuatro y cinco	Son las cuatro y diecisiete.	Son las cinco y uno.	Son las seis y veintiuno.
Son las siete y ocho.	Son las nueve y veinticinco.	Son las diez y cuarto.	Son las once y media.
Son las doce y tres.	A las doce y veintiuno	A las ocho y media	A las diez y dos
A las once y cuarto	Son las ocho y veinte.	A las tres y veintinueve.	Son las doce y cuarto.
